"To take a little boy and help him grow into a man - That's magic." – Anonymous

WELCOME/INVOCATION (CM OR OTHER LEADER):

THE MAGIC OF CUB SCOUTING

To take a little boy and help him grow into a man - That's magic.
To teach him how to make things and let him know he can - That's magic.
To watch him learn the Cub Scout Promise and apply it in his life - That's magic.
To see him grow in mind and body, overcoming strife - That's magic.
To watch his family beam with pride at everything he'll do - That's magic.
And to love him even if things don't go as he wanted them to - That's magic.
As his Scouting leaders, we also beam with pride, because we know he's learning and growing up inside. That's Cub Scout Magic.

WOLF CLOSING:

MAGIC WORDS CLOSING

KATE: There is a very special kind of magic. This magic will open the coldest heart and win wonderful friends for us.

(Cub Scouts come on stage, each one carrying a different sign.

WOLF #1: Please,

WOLF #2: Thank you,

WOLF #3: Pardon me or Excuse Me

WOLF #4: You're welcome,

WOLF #5: How nice you look,

WOLF #6: I admit I made a mistake

WOLF #7: I'm Sorry

KATE: Simple words, but important words that tell someone else that you are appreciative, courteous and thoughtful. Add kind deeds to the magic of words, and the possibilities are unlimited. A smile happens quickly, but the memory of it lasts a long time.

CLOSING WORDS:

IT'S MAGIC – CUBMASTER'S MINUTE

You know, we are all magicians. It doesn't take a magic hat; it doesn't take a magic wand. Magic is always present in our lives.

The magic of a sunset, of a friend's kind word or deed, or how we are loved and needed. These things can leave a magical feeling within us. The greatest way we can use the magic around us is by using it to quietly help others and not be so concerned about getting the credit.

Maybe we can provide magic for others by doing small deeds that will make another person wonder who did the deed for them.

Cub Scouts, can you create a little magic for someone else this month?
